

The UZIMA Learning Journey

A Family- and Community-Based Education Support System

From ROOTED Identity to OCCUPYING Influence

UZIMA Education Institute is a family- and community-based education support system that works in partnership with real schools, training institutions, churches, enterprises, and community structures to support learners in acquiring 360° formation:

- Academic theory (through partner schools and institutions)
- Academic practicals (through guided application and projects)
- Real-world experience (through families, communities, and institutions)

UZIMA does not replace schools.

UZIMA strengthens, integrates, and contextualizes learning across life.

Learning happens across multiple environments:

- Home and family life
- Partner schools and training institutions
- Community learning groups
- Churches, enterprises, and civic spaces
- Real-life contexts of neighborhoods, communities, and—over time—nations

Teachers, coaches, and mentors from partner institutions collaborate with parents and guardians, who remain active co-educators, role models, and anchors of values and identity throughout the journey.
